

Candidates of the member of the Board of Commissioners

Kanaka Puradiredja

An Indonesian citizen, he was born in Bandung on December 8, 1944. He earned his Bachelor's degree in Accounting from Faculty of Economics of Padjadjaran University, Bandung (1971). He is a Chartered Member from LKDI and a certified Risk Management Professional, as well as Chartered Accountant and Certified Audit Committee Practices..

Currently, Kanaka Puradiredja is a Chairman of Certification Board of Indonesian Audit Committee Association (IKAI), member of Honorary Board of Risk Management Professional Association (PRIMA), and Chairman of Executive Board of Indonesian Commissioners and Directors Institute (LKDI). In 2016, he was appointed as a member of National Committee on Governance Policy (KNKG) by the Coordinating Minister of Economic Affairs of Indonesia.

Previously he was the founder and senior partner of Kanaka Puradiredja Suhartono, Public Accounting firm, (2000-2007). He was one of the founders and leading partner of KPMG Indonesia and his last position was the Chairman of the firm (1978-1999) and Chairman of Honorary Board of Indonesian Accountants Association (2002-2010).

Gories Mere

An Indonesian citizen, he was born in Medan, on November 17, 1954. He completed his education in Police Academy in 1976 and continued his study in Perguruan Tinggi Ilmu Kepolisian (PTIK) in 1986, in Sespimpol in 1992, and in the Military Command School in 1998.

He served in various positions, including the Police Detectives Head at Jakarta Police Office, East Jakarta Police Head, West Java Police Detectives Head, Jakarta Police Detectives Head, East Nusa Tenggara Police Inspector, East Nusa Tenggara Police Inspectorate Head, National Police Detectives for Drugs, National Police Detectives Deputy Chief, and the National Narcotics Agency (BNN) Head.